INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY

DEPUTY INVOLVED SHOOTING: HIT

CASE NUMBER: SH 2355933

FILE NUMBER: 014-02620-0987-053

STATION/UNIT/BUREAU: North Patrol Division/West Hollywood Station

DATE/TIME/DAY: May 24, 2014, 0150 hours, Saturday

LOCATION: 8430 Sunset Boulevard
West Hollywood CA 90069

SYNOPSIS:

Deputies Zenon Porche #[redacted], [redacted], #[redacted], Sergio Venegas, #[redacted], Edmond Ohandjanian, #[redacted], Trenton Miles, #[redacted], Christopher Jackson #[redacted], and Sergeant Chris Tatar, #[redacted], worked an overtime shift for a special event contract with the House of Blues to provide security for a rap concert. A briefing was conducted prior to the start of the shift in which personnel were instructed to allow House of Blues security staff to handle problems inside the venue. Deputies were to intervene if they witnessed a criminal act outside of the venue but were to remain aware of the consequences of their actions in relation to issues presented by the presence of a large crowd. Personnel assigned to West Hollywood Station commonly work similar assignments and strive to maintain a uniform presence to discourage problems.

The event ended and the patrons were leaving the location. House of Blues security personnel informed the deputies a fight was occurring in the valet parking area. The deputies walked to the valet parking area to ascertain if security personnel required assistance.

The parties involved in the fight were separated prior to the arrival of the deputies. Suspect Brown was angry and wanted to reengage the males after security personnel separated them. The other males had been escorted to a brown Pontiac Bonneville, which was parked in the valet parking area approximately four to ten feet in front of Suspect Brown's Chrysler 300.

Deputy Porche noted Suspect Brown was not cooperating with the House of Blues security personnel and walked toward them to assist. Security personnel convinced Suspect Brown to enter his Chrysler 300 before Deputy Porche contacted him.

Suspect Brown entered his vehicle and immediately accelerated forward, slamming into the Bonneville parked in front of him. He continued to accelerate after the collision, causing his tires to screech and spin as he pushed against the Bonneville. There were a number of other patrons and security staff around the vehicles who scattered when he accelerated. Witnesses [redacted] and [redacted] both House of Blues security personnel, were standing between the two cars and forced to jump from the path of the vehicle. Witness [redacted] suffered a glancing blow to his knee as the vehicle passed him.

Deputy Venegas ran to the driver's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle, illuminated the interior of the vehicle with his flashlight, and pointed his firearm at Suspect Brown. Deputy Venegas yelled at Suspect Brown to stop and exit the vehicle. Suspect Brown released the accelerator for a moment and then reapplied full throttle and collided with the Bonneville a second time. Suspect Brown continued to accelerate against the Bonneville after the collision, causing the tires on his vehicle to spin and smoke.

Deputy Porche ran to the driver's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle, just north of Deputy Venegas, and pointed his firearm at Suspect Brown. Suspect Brown ignored the continued commands to stop and exit the vehicle. Suspect Brown made eye contact with Deputy Venegas but displayed no desire to discontinue his actions.

Deputy Porche felt Suspect Brown's behavior could potentially result in severe injuries to persons near the vehicle if he was not stopped. He expressed concern the vehicles could become disengaged, which would cause the vehicle to lurch to the left or right of the Bonneville, which Deputy Porche believed was occupied. There was a crowd of persons to the rear of Suspect Brown's vehicle who were in his path if he chose to reverse course. Deputy Porche did not believe Suspect Brown would stop until he had accomplished his objective.

Deputy Porche fired one round from his service weapon to stop Suspect Brown. This round struck Suspect Brown's vehicle. Deputy Porche paused to reassess after the first shot. Suspect Brown continued to ignore the commands and accelerated into the Bonneville. Deputy Porche fired a second round which struck Suspect Brown in the left bicep. Suspect Brown immediately stopped his acceleration, opened the driver's door, and rolled out of the vehicle to the ground. He was handcuffed without further resistance.

Deputy [redacted] broadcast the shooting had occurred and requested paramedics. Deputy Venegas and Witness [redacted], a security officer, rendered first aid to Suspect Brown pending the arrival of the paramedics. Suspect Brown was transported to Cedars Sinai Hospital where he received treatment for his gunshot wound.

Homicide Detectives Jeffrey Leslie and Adon Torres responded to conduct the criminal investigation. See copy of their completed investigation attached as Exhibit A. IAB Lieutenant Quitman Carter and Sergeants Dennis Watters and Carlos Ybarra responded to conduct an administrative investigation. Lieutenant Carter ensured Deputy Porche was sequestered pending his interview by Homicide.

The results of the Homicide Investigation were submitted to the Justice System Integrity Division of the District Attorney's Office for review. See Letter of Opinion attached as Exhibit B.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENT:

Deputy Zenon Porche, #[redacted], was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. The interviews were audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45329. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See Exhibit A, pages 13-14 for a summary of the interview.

Deputy Porche was interviewed by IAB Sergeant Watters and Mendoza on July 14, 2015. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46945. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview.

Deputy Porche was assigned to work security at the main entrance to the concert, which was at the intersection of Olive Drive and the northern entrance driveway. The concert ended and other deputies converged on the area while waiting for the patrons to leave the establishment. Security personnel informed the deputies there was a fight in the valet parking area.

Deputy Porche walked toward the valet area with the other deputies. There were about fifty people in the area and House of Blues security personnel separated the combatants prior to his arrival. There was a brown car parked about one car length in front of a black car in the valet area. There was a number of people around the parked vehicles.

Security personnel ushered one of the parties to the brown car and were attempting to place Suspect Brown into the black car. Suspect Brown was belligerent and did not want to enter the car. Deputy Porche walked toward Suspect Brown to assist security personnel. Suspect Brown entered the vehicle voluntarily as Deputy Porche approached. Deputy Porche did not speak to Suspect Brown or note any symptoms which indicated he was intoxicated. Deputy Porche felt Suspect Brown was angry due to the fight.

Deputy Porche backed away and watched Suspect Brown. Suspect Brown accelerated his vehicle to what appeared to be the maximum possible speed and rammed the brown vehicle parked in front of him. There were persons near the vehicles, on both sides, who scattered to avoid injury when Suspect Brown accelerated. Deputy Porche believed there were occupants in the brown vehicle prior to the collision.

Suspect Brown kept his vehicle at full throttle after the collision and smoke emitted from the tires as they screeched and spun. Deputy Venegas gave Suspect Brown commands to stop and pointed his firearm at Suspect Brown through the driver's side window, about two to three feet away. Deputy Porche believed Suspect Brown saw Deputy Venegas and ignored him.

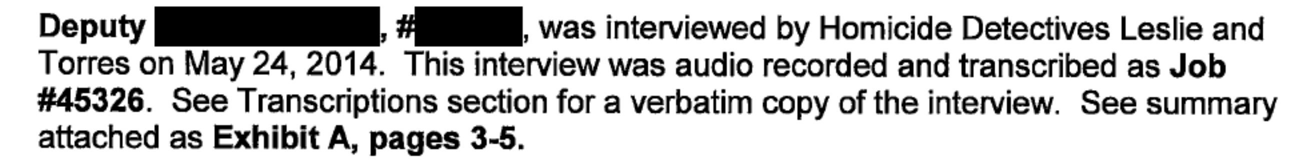

Suspect Brown took his foot off the accelerator for a moment and then reaccelerated into the brown vehicle. Deputy Porche moved to a position on the rear driver's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle near Deputy Venegas. Deputy Porche felt Suspect Brown did not intend to stop until he accomplished his objective. Deputy Porche believed Suspect Brown intended to hurt or kill someone. There were still people on both sides of the vehicle and to the rear. Deputy Porche expressed concern they would be injured if the vehicles slipped apart during the acceleration or if Suspect Brown placed the vehicle in reverse. Deputy Porche believed Suspect Brown's actions must be stopped immediately to prevent these injuries and he fired one round at Suspect Brown.

Deputy Porche reassessed after the first round and determined it had no effect. He fired a second round at Suspect Brown. Suspect Brown immediately took his foot off the accelerator, opened the door and rolled out of the vehicle. Suspect Brown offered no further resistance.

Deputy Porche heard another deputy broadcast a shooting had occurred over the radio. He was aware paramedics responded to provide medical treatment to Suspect Brown, but he was escorted from the scene prior to their arrival.

EMPLOYEE WITNESS STATEMENT:

Deputy [redacted], #[redacted], was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45326. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 3-5.

Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by Internal Affairs Sergeants Watters and Mendoza on July 9, 2015. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46893. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview.

Deputy [redacted] was with Deputy Porche near the main entrance to the House of Blues when he saw a commotion near the valet area. He believed there was likely a fight and they walked toward the valet area. He saw Sergeant Tatar and one or two other deputies in front of him. House of Blues security personnel ran to the area and separated Suspect Brown from a small group of males prior to the arrival of the Department personnel.

House of Blues security personnel escorted Suspect Brown to his vehicle at the rear of the line of vehicles parked in the valet area and told him to get in the car. The other group was escorted to the vehicle in front of Suspect Brown's vehicle. Deputy [redacted] yelled to move the vehicles because he saw there was no path for Suspect Brown to leave the location.

Suspect Brown entered his vehicle and immediately accelerated into the vehicle which was parked about a car length in front of him. The engine revved and the tires screeched as Suspect Brown slammed into the other vehicle. Deputy [redacted] believed there were persons inside the vehicle into which Suspect Brown collided. There was fifteen to twenty-five people standing around the vehicles at the time of the collision.

Suspect Brown stopped accelerating just after he struck the vehicle in front of him. It was not possible for Suspect Brown's vehicle to go around the vehicles in front of him. Deputy [redacted] saw the reverse lights illuminate briefly and feared he would drive the vehicle in reverse and potentially injure or kill someone. Deputy [redacted] was approximately ten to fifteen feet from the passenger's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle. He yelled at Suspect Brown to stop the vehicle. Deputy Venegas was approximately three feet away from the driver's side of the vehicle. Deputy [redacted] drew his firearm but Deputy Venegas was in his line of fire.

Suspect Brown reaccelerated into the vehicle in front of him. Deputy [redacted] feared he would push the vehicle into someone or slide off the bumper and drive into someone. He continued to order Suspect Brown to stop and get out of the car. Deputy [redacted] moved back a step or two to avoid the crossfire with Deputy Venegas. He heard a gunshot but saw no evidence Deputy Venegas had fired. He then noticed Deputy Porche on the driver's side of the vehicle and saw smoke exiting the muzzle of Deputy Porche's firearm. He heard a second gunshot and saw the muzzle flash from Deputy Porche's firearm approximately two seconds after the first shot. Suspect Brown slumped over and removed his foot from the accelerator.

Deputy [redacted] went around the rear of the vehicle and saw Suspect Brown exit the vehicle and lay face down on the ground. He broadcast that a shooting occurred and requested paramedics via his radio.

Deputy [redacted] did not have any contact with Suspect Brown before he entered his vehicle.

> IAB Note: Aerial photographs used to identify locations during the interview with Deputy [redacted] are attached as Exhibit F.

Deputy Sergio Venegas, #[redacted], was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45327. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 5-7.

Deputy Venegas was interviewed by Internal Affairs Sergeants Watters and Mendoza on July 9, 2015. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46895. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview.

Deputy Venegas heard radio traffic which indicated there was a fight in the valet area as he arrived at the weapons screening area near the main entrance with Deputy Jackson. They walked toward the valet area and saw a large group of people around Suspect Brown's vehicle, which was parked approximately five feet behind a brown vehicle.

Deputy Venegas heard an unknown person yell, "Get these cars out of here," and people began to disperse in all directions. He was about thirty feet from Suspect Brown when Suspect Brown entered his vehicle. Suspect Brown appeared to be angry. Suspect Brown suddenly accelerated his vehicle and collided with the brown vehicle parked in front of him. There was approximately ten people near Suspect Brown's vehicle at the time. Deputy Venegas did not see anyone in the brown vehicle.

Deputy Venegas ran to the driver's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle to obtain a better view of Suspect Brown. Suspect Brown stopped his acceleration briefly after the initial collision and then reaccelerated into the vehicle a second time. Smoke emitted from the rear tires as they spun while Suspect Brown attempted to push the vehicle from his path. Suspect Brown's vehicle fishtailed as he continued to accelerate. He believed Suspect Brown was trying to escape or intended to hurt someone if he succeeded in pushing the brown vehicle out of his path. Deputy Venegas was concerned about the danger posed to him and other deputies as the vehicle fishtailed. He also expressed concern that Suspect Brown would drive in reverse and injure someone.

Deputy Venegas told Suspect Brown to stop his vehicle at least ten times and shined his flashlight on him. He made eye contact with Suspect Brown who ignored his commands. He estimated he was ten to fifteen feet from the driver. Deputy Venegas considered using his firearm to stop Suspect Brown but noted another deputy in his line of fire on the other side of the vehicle.

Deputy Venegas heard a gunshot to his right and saw Deputy Porche with his arms extended in a shooting position. He looked toward Suspect Brown and heard a second shot. Suspect Brown stopped his acceleration, opened the driver's door and slumped out of the car. Deputy Venegas noted blood on Suspect Brown's left upper arm. He ordered Suspect Brown to lay on his stomach and handcuffed him while Deputies Porche and Brionnes provided cover. He heard Deputy Brionnes broadcast a shooting had occurred and request rescue via the radio.

Deputy Venegas obtained towels from the valet personnel and used them to apply pressure to Suspect Brown's wound pending the arrival of paramedics.

Deputy Venegas did not have any contact with Suspect Brown before he entered his vehicle.

IAB Note: Aerial photographs used to identify locations during the interview with Deputy Venegas are attached as Exhibit G.

Deputy Edmond Ohandjanian, #[redacted], was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45324. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 7-8.

Deputy Ohandjanian was interviewed by Internal Affairs Sergeants Watters and Mendoza on July 14, 2015. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46944. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview.

Deputy Ohandjanian was near the main entrance when he saw a fight in a group of fifteen to twenty persons in the valet parking area and walked toward the fight with the other deputies. House of Blues security personnel ran to the fight and separated the parties before the deputies arrived.

There was a Chrysler 300 parked behind another vehicle in the valet area. Deputy Ohandjanian took a position between a blue vehicle, which was parked to the passenger's side of the Chrysler 300, and the wall to the security office. Deputy [redacted] and Sergeant Tatar were near him to his south.

Deputy Ohandjanian heard someone say, "Hey, get these cars out of here." Suspect Brown walked to the Chrysler 300 and entered the driver's seat. Deputy Ohandjanian did not see Suspect Brown involved in the fight but saw that he appeared angry.

Suspect Brown rammed into the vehicle parked in front of him with maximum acceleration and pushed against the parked vehicle. He discontinued his acceleration for a brief moment before he accelerated into the vehicle a second time. Suspect Brown pushed against the parked vehicle causing the tires on his vehicle to spin, smoke, and screech.

Deputy Ohandjanian was not sure if there were people inside the parked car in front of Suspect Brown. He believed Suspect Brown intended to hurt someone in the vehicle or crowd. Deputy Ohandjanian saw three males near the Bonneville prior to the collision but did not know where they had gone as his attention had been on Suspect Brown due to his angry body language.

Deputy Ohandjanian heard a gunshot and scanned the crowd to identify the source. He saw Deputy Porche on the driver's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle with his firearm extended in an Isosceles shooting stance. Deputy Porche fired a second round and Deputy Ohandjanian saw the muzzle flash. Deputy Ohandjanian described the shots as "controlled." He worked his way north to remove himself from the field of fire. Suspect Brown discontinued accelerating the vehicle after the second shot.

Deputy Ohandjanian went around the rear of Suspect Brown's vehicle. Suspect Brown exited the vehicle and laid on the ground. Deputy Ohandjanian was not certain how Suspect Brown exited the vehicle or was handcuffed, as his attention was split between Suspect Brown and checking the crowd for any retaliation. Deputy Ohandjanian heard another deputy broadcast the shooting and request paramedics via the radio.

IAB Note: Aerial photographs used to identify locations during the interview with Deputy Ohandjanian are attached as Exhibit H.

Deputy Trenton Miles, #[redacted], was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45328. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 8-10.

Deputy Miles was interviewed by Internal Affairs Sergeants Watters and Mendoza on July 9, 2015. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46894. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview.

Deputy Miles was near the main entrance to the House of Blues when he heard a commotion in the valet parking area. Deputy Ohandjanian broadcast there was a fight via direct on the radio, and the deputies walked as a group toward the fight.

House of Blues security personnel ran to the location of the fight and separated the involved parties prior to the arrival of the deputies. There was approximately an even number of security personnel and involved patrons in the area after the fight ended. A Chrysler 300 was parked about five to ten feet behind a beige four door sedan. A blue vehicle was parked to the west of those vehicles. Deputy Miles heard one of the House of Blues managers yelling at the crowd to get in their vehicles and leave. The deputies formed a skirmish line to the west of the blue car, with Deputy Miles at the south end of the line near the southwest corner of the security building, to maintain a command presence and encourage patrons to exit the area peacefully.

The Chrysler 300 accelerated at maximum speed into the beige vehicle parked to the front. Deputy Miles did not see anyone around or inside the beige vehicle. After a few seconds the driver stopped accelerating briefly before resuming full throttle, pushing against the rear of the beige car. The tires on the Chrysler screeched and smoked. Deputy Miles felt the driver may be drunk and attempting to flee the scene of the collision.

Deputy Miles moved north to remove himself from the area in front of the Chrysler. He saw the passenger's door on the Chrysler was open and intended to deploy his chemical agent (OC Spray) into the interior of the vehicle. He heard two faint gunshots as he moved past the blue vehicle parked to the west of the Chrysler. He believed the gunshots may have originated from the crowd and scanned the crowd for any threat.

He saw Deputy Venegas pointing his firearm at Suspect Brown. Deputy Miles saw him giving the driver commands but was not able to hear what he said.

Deputy Miles walked to the rear of the Chrysler and saw Deputies Porche and Venegas pointing their firearms at Suspect Brown. Deputy Miles saw the rear driver's side window was shattered and believed deputies had been the source of the gunshots. Deputy Miles watched the crowd to be prepared for any type of retaliation.

Deputy Miles had no contact with Suspect Brown before he entered his vehicle.

Deputy Christopher Jackson, #[redacted], was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45323. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 10-11.

Deputy Jackson was interviewed by Internal Affairs Sergeants Watters and Mendoza on July 14, 2015. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46943. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview.

Deputies Jackson and Venegas were assigned a post at Sunset Boulevard and Olive Drive. They were returning to this post from the northern entrance driveway, on Olive Drive, when Deputy Jackson heard a radio broadcast regarding a fight in the valet parking area. They walked east in the northern entrance driveway toward the valet parking area. As they walked past the main entrance he saw House of Blues security personnel running toward the valet parking area. Deputy Jackson saw a silver car parked approximately five to eight feet behind a gold or brown car in the valet area, surrounded by approximately two dozen people. He did not see a fight but believed one had occurred.

The silver car accelerated with the tires spinning and rammed into the gold or brown car as people scattered. Deputy Jackson was on the passenger's side of the silver car, about fifteen feet to the rear of it. He estimated there were five to ten people within a foot of the silver car when it accelerated. After the initial collision the silver car stopped its acceleration for a moment and then the tires started to spin again as it accelerated against the rear of the other car.

Deputy Venegas joined Deputy Porche on the driver's side of the silver car after the collision and pointed his firearm at Suspect Brown. Deputy Venegas ordered Suspect Brown to stop and exit the vehicle. Deputy Jackson felt the deputies on the driver's side of the vehicle were better positioned to handle the driver. He was aware of the gang related nature of the event and focused on the crowd to ensure no one else became involved and to protect the safety of other patrons. Deputy Jackson did not have a clear line of fire at Suspect Brown from his position and felt it would be unsafe to approach on the passenger's side of the vehicle due to the field of fire from Deputy Venegas.

Deputy Jackson heard a gunshot and saw Deputy Porche with his firearm at full extension. He saw Deputy Porche fire a second gunshot about one to three seconds after the first gunshot. The acceleration of the vehicle stopped after the second gunshot and Suspect Brown exited the vehicle. Deputy Jackson continued to monitor the crowd to the rear of the vehicle.

Deputy Jackson had no contact with Suspect Brown before he entered his vehicle.

IAB Note: Aerial photographs used to identify locations during the interview with Deputy Jackson are attached as Exhibit J.

Sergeant Chris Tatar, #[redacted], was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45335. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 11-13.

Sergeant Tatar was interviewed by Internal Affairs Sergeant Watters on August 5, 2015. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #47209. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview.

Sergeant Tatar was in the driveway near the rear exit of the House of Blues when a fight involving ten to twelve males occurred in the valet parking area. Sergeant Tatar and the deputies working the event responded to the fight, which they were able to stop with the assistance of House of Blues security personnel. The area seemed calm after the fight ended.

Sergeant Tatar was on the passenger side of a vehicle parked in the valet area when it suddenly accelerated and collided with another vehicle which was parked five to six feet to the front. Approximately ten people ran to get away from the vehicle. Suspect Brown placed the vehicle in reverse, drove back three or four feet, and then accelerated into the parked vehicle a second time. Suspect Brown seemed intent on going either through or around the vehicle parked in front of him.

Sergeant Tatar believed Suspect Brown needed to be stopped and contemplated his options. He considered reaching into the vehicle through the passenger's door but determined that would be unsafe. He intended to move to the driver's side of the vehicle to formulate a plan for his team to extract the driver from the vehicle. Sergeant Tatar heard two gunshots and the Suspect stopped his acceleration. He did not see who fired but ensured Suspect Brown was handcuffed and normal procedures were followed after he learned it was a deputy involved shooting.

Sergeant Tatar did not remember any deputy speaking to Suspect Brown or in a position to determine his sobriety prior to his entry to his vehicle.

IAB Note: Aerial photographs used to identify locations during the interview with Sergeant Tatar are attached as Exhibit K.

CIVILIAN WITNESS STATEMENT:

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45332. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 14-16.

Witness [redacted] attended the concert with Suspect Brown. They were in the valet area waiting to leave when Suspect Brown became angry. Suspect Brown was intoxicated with alcohol and marijuana. Suspect Brown approached her in a manner in which she believed he intended to assault her. [redacted] (later identified as [redacted]) came to her defense and a fight ensued between Suspect Brown and [redacted].

Suspect Brown entered his Chrysler 300 after the fight ended. Witness [redacted] refused to get in the vehicle with him due to his behavior. Suspect Brown accelerated forward with his tires screeching and collided with the vehicle parked in front of him. The tires on Suspect Brown's vehicle continued to screech after the collision, and she heard two gunshots. She did not see who fired the shots.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #45331. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 16-18.

Witness [redacted] worked security for House of Blues. He was in the valet parking area asking the men near the parked Bonneville to get in the car and leave when he heard yelling from behind him. He walked toward the yelling and saw two males preventing Suspect Brown from getting into his vehicle. A fight broke out between Suspect Brown and the two men. Seven males ultimately beat Suspect Brown while he was on the ground. One of the men stepped on the back of Suspect Brown's head repeatedly. Suspect Brown was bleeding from the face and had a black eye after the fight.

Witness [redacted] was upset about the male stepping on Suspect Brown's head and went to talk to him after the fight ended. Witness [redacted] was standing between Suspect Brown's vehicle and the Bonneville when Suspect Brown accelerated toward him with as much speed as the car could gain in the distance between the two vehicles. Witness [redacted] pushed off the hood of Suspect Brown's vehicle and propelled himself out of the path of the vehicle. Witness [redacted] was nearly pinned between the two vehicles when the collision occurred.

The deputies arrived quickly and ordered Suspect Brown to stop and exit the vehicle. Suspect Brown ignored the orders and continued to accelerate against the Bonneville.

Witness [redacted] felt Suspect Brown may not have heard the initial commands because his window was up. A deputy fired a shot which shattered the rear driver's side window of Suspect Brown's vehicle. Suspect Brown continued the acceleration. Witness [redacted] felt Suspect Brown had to be aware the deputies were attempting to stop him at that point but he ignored them. The deputy shot a second round which struck Suspect Brown in the shoulder. Suspect Brown stopped and crawled out of the car.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Leslie and Torres on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and placed in Dictaphone as Job #45333. This interview was not transcribed. See summary attached as Exhibit A, page 16.

Witness [redacted] is Suspect Brown's mother. She was not present at the House of Blues.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Lillienfeld, #[redacted], and Hardiman, #[redacted] on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46208. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 24-26.

Witness [redacted] worked as a supervisor for the House of Blues. He responded to the valet parking area due to a fight. Witness [redacted] helped to break up the fight. Suspect Brown was angry after the fight and Witness [redacted] stood between Suspect Brown and one of [redacted] security personnel. Witness [redacted] told Suspect Brown to get in his car before the situation became worse.

Suspect Brown entered his vehicle, and after less than ten seconds, accelerated into the vehicle parked in front of him. Witness [redacted] a House of Blues employee, jumped out of the path of Suspect Brown's car and was nearly struck. Witness [redacted] estimated there was approximately forty people in the area, with persons both behind and in front of Suspect Brown's vehicle. He feared Suspect Brown would injure a number of people if he placed the vehicle in reverse. There was a second collision between Suspect Brown's car and the vehicle parked in front of him. Witness [redacted] did not know if Suspect Brown reversed his vehicle prior to the second collision or if the gap was caused by the parked car being pushed forward as a result of the first collision.

Deputies arrived, pointed their firearms at Suspect Brown, and yelled at him to stop the car. Suspect Brown continued to accelerate causing the tires on his vehicle to spin as it pushed against the parked vehicle. Witness [redacted] heard two shots and the incident was ended.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Lillienfeld and Hardiman on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46212. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 26-28.

Witness [redacted] was the manager for the House of Blues. He responded to the valet parking area after he heard security radio traffic which indicated there was a fight in that location. Witness [redacted] separated the combatants with the assistance of his security personnel. The situation seemed to calm until Suspect Brown entered his vehicle. Witness [redacted] was detaining another combatant at the time.

Suspect Brown accelerated into the parked vehicle in front of him, nearly striking House of Blues employee [redacted] who was standing between the two vehicles. There was approximately fifteen people to the rear of Suspect Brown's vehicle, another fifteen people to the west, and another fifteen to the south of his vehicle when he collided with the parked vehicle. Witness [redacted] feared Suspect Brown would place the vehicle in reverse and collide with the pedestrians to the rear.

Suspect Brown maintained the acceleration against the parked vehicle with smoke emitting from his tires as they spun. Witness [redacted] opened the passenger's side door of Suspect Brown's vehicle. He intended to get into the car and attempt to take the keys from Suspect Brown but saw two deputies arrive on the driver's side of the car with their guns drawn. The deputies ordered Suspect Brown to turn off the engine and exit the car. Suspect Brown looked directly at the deputies through the driver's side window. Witness [redacted] backed away to remove himself from the line of fire. After he backed away he heard one gunshot and then a second gunshot. Suspect Brown opened the door and rolled out of the vehicle, where he was handcuffed. Witness [redacted] estimated about thirty seconds elapsed between the time of the initial collision and the time he heard the gunshots.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Lillienfeld and Hardiman on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46215. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 28-29.

Witness [redacted] was the Music Hall Supervisor at the House of Blues. He responded to the valet parking area due to security radio traffic regarding a fight. Suspect Brown was among the males involved in a fight when he arrived. After the fight ended, Suspect Brown entered his vehicle and accelerated into the parked vehicle in front of him. The parked vehicle was empty, but Suspect Brown nearly struck Witness [redacted] when he rammed the vehicle. Witness [redacted] was about five feet away from Suspect Brown's vehicle, near the rear bumper, on the driver's side of the vehicle.

Suspect Brown stopped his acceleration for a moment after the initial collision and then accelerated into the parked vehicle a second time. Witness [redacted] believed the separation between the two vehicles which allowed for a second collision was caused by the force of the first collision.

A deputy arrived on the driver's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle, near the rear passenger's door, at about the time of the second collision. He yelled at Suspect Brown to get out of the vehicle two to three times. The deputy shot the rear window and Witness [redacted] moved away from the area. He heard a second shot fired five to seven seconds later. Suspect Brown stopped his vehicle and threw himself to the ground.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Lillienfeld and Hardiman on May 27, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46218. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 30-31.

Witness [redacted] was an off-duty Los Angeles Police Department Sergeant who worked a security job at the House of Blues. He was in the security office with Witnesses [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted], who were also off-duty Los Angeles Police Department personnel. Witness [redacted] heard security radio traffic regarding a fight in the valet parking area, and he and the other off-duty officers went to see if their assistance was required.

> IAB Note: The entrance to the security office is at the bottom of the hill, on the south side of the building. The walls of the building were constructed of cinder block and form the west boundary of the area in which the vehicles exit the valet parking area.

The fight was over prior to the arrival of Witness [redacted] and the other officers. There were numerous people in the area, which included deputies, security personnel and about twenty-five patrons. Suspect Brown was in the driver's seat of the Chrysler 300 revving the engine. Witness [redacted] heard a deputy tell Suspect Brown to turn off the car and get out of the car. Suspect Brown accelerated forward, nearly striking Witness [redacted]. Suspect Brown reversed the car and then drove forward and collided with the parked vehicle in front of him. Witness [redacted] described it as a hard collision.

Witness [redacted] stopped his advance and told the other officers to back up due to the crash. He heard a gunshot and saw the left rear passenger's window shattered. The engine on Suspect Brown's vehicle continued to race as if the accelerator was fully depressed and the deputies continued to give Suspect Brown commands to get out of the vehicle. Witness [redacted] and the other officers returned to the south side of the building in which the security office is housed to ensure they were not in the line of fire. He heard a second gunshot about three seconds after the first gunshot. The deputies ordered Suspect Brown out of the vehicle after the second gunshot. Witness [redacted] believed they handcuffed him on the ground but was not able to see that from his position.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Lillienfeld and Hardiman on June 4, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46220. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 31-32.

Witness [redacted] was an off-duty Los Angeles Police Department Officer who worked a security job at the House of Blues. He was in the security office when he heard radio traffic regarding a fight in the valet parking area. The fight was over before he arrived. Two Black males who owned a gold Pontiac parked in the valet area told him they had been involved in the fight. Suspect Brown rammed the Pontiac with his vehicle three times, backing up in between each of the separate collisions. Deputies repeatedly yelled at Suspect Brown stop and get out of the car.

Witness [redacted] moved to a position about fifteen feet west of Suspect Brown's car but at a lower elevation on the steep hill. Suspect Brown was gritting his teeth and aggressively holding the steering wheel. The tires on his car spun and emitted smoke. Witness [redacted] was only able to see two deputies on the driver's side of Suspect Brown's vehicle from his position. He saw them draw their firearms and heard two gunshots. He did not know who had fired. Witness [redacted] felt he may be in the line of fire and returned to the security office after the shots were fired.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Lillienfeld and Hardiman on June 4, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46222. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 32-33.

Witness [redacted] was an off-duty Los Angeles Police Department Officer who worked a security job at the House of Blues. He was in the security office when he heard radio traffic regarding a fight in the valet parking area. The fight, which involved Suspect Brown against three to four other Black males, ended as he arrived in the area.

Suspect Brown entered his vehicle and revved the engine. The other males involved in the fight stated the vehicle parked about three feet in front of Suspect Brown's vehicle in the valet area belonged to them. These males were not inside their vehicle. A House of Blues security guard was standing in between the two vehicles and moved quickly from the area just before Suspect Brown accelerated into vehicle parked in front of him. The vehicles separated due to the force of the impact. The parked vehicle was pushed into another car parked in front of it. Suspect Brown maintained his acceleration and collided with the parked vehicle at least two more times. Witness [redacted] heard an unknown person tell Suspect Brown to get out of the car and to stop the car.

Witness [redacted] saw deputies to the rear of Suspect Brown's vehicle but was not able to see anyone on the driver's side of the vehicle. He heard three gunshots but did not see who fired the shots. He was approximately thirty feet from Suspect Brown's vehicle when he heard the gunshots. He was told one of the deputies fired the gunshots, and he and the other off-duty Los Angeles Police Department officers returned to the security office to avoid a crossfire.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Lillienfeld and Hardiman on June 7, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Job #46226. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, pages 33-34.

Witness [redacted] was an off-duty Los Angeles Police Department Officer who worked a security job at the House of Blues. He was in the security office when he heard radio traffic regarding a fight in the valet parking area. House of Blues security personnel and deputies segregated the involved persons.

Suspect Brown entered his vehicle, revved the engine, and rammed the vehicle parked in front of him multiple times. Witness [redacted] was approximately thirty feet from Suspect Brown's vehicle, near the wall to the security office. He and the other officers cleared civilians from the area.

A deputy knocked on the driver's side window of Suspect Brown's vehicle and yelled for him to stop the vehicle. A second deputy, who was behind that deputy, drew his firearm. The second deputy fired two rounds with no lag time between the shots. The first round fired shattered the left rear passenger's window. One of the rounds struck Suspect Brown. Witness [redacted] and the other officers took cover behind the security building. He did not see Suspect Brown taken into custody.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Homicide Detectives Ty Labbe, #[redacted], and Frederick Morse, #[redacted] on May 24, 2014. This interview was audio recorded and transcribed as Jobs #46211 and 46213. See Transcriptions section for a verbatim copy of the interview. See summary attached as Exhibit A, page 36.
